JOEL ONLY GETS $50,000

Small Bequest to Missing Sea of Wealthy Cigarette Manufacturer.

NEW YORK, July 29.—While his two brothers and a sister will shard most of an estate conservatively estimated at $12,000,000, Joel Kinney, who made his fortune by the manufacture of cigarettes, will receive only the interest on $50,000, and not even that should he make any contest or objection.

Mr. Kinney died on April 4th in his home, at No. 19 West Fifty-fourth Street, and his will was admitted to probate yesterday by Surrogate David Young, in Morristown, N. J.

Joel Kinney has been missing for fiftien years. As the result of a diagreement with his father he was sent on a trip around the world in a specially chartered sailing vessel, and his relatives have known little or nothing or him since. When his father died the other heirs sent lawyers to look for him, and one of these, E. C. M. Rand, traced him to Los Angeles, Cai. There Rand met two men, he $250, who told him Kinney had been virtually a prisoner on the ship and was then in their oustody, and they betained $500 from Rand on a promise to surrender him. Then they disappeared and he heard nothing more.

Warren, Morris and Beatrice Kinney will share most of the fortune, attay $750,000 has been invested by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York for Watren and a like amount for Morris. To the same company is left $250,000 to be invested for Bridget Gallagher, who will receive the interest for life, the principal then reverting to the estate.
